Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	The sale and management of electricity in Thorold was controlled by the town council in the early 1900s. By 1920 a board, with members of council as representatives, managed the electricity needs of Thorold and was organized as the Public Utilities Commission of the Town of Thorold. In 1922 this organization succeeded in negotiating with the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario to supply power at cost. Source: Town of Thorold Centennial, 1850-1950, p. 102. The Thorold Hydro Electric Commission held its inaugural meeting on January 9, 1956. Members present were: Mayor M.L. Shanks, John C. Halliday, C.R. Buss, Dr. Donald A. McMillan and C.A. Knoll. J.C. Halliday was appointed chairman for 1956. In 2001? Thorold Hydro Electric Commission became Thorold Hydro and in 2005? it was purchased by Hydro One.
